Call To Me
2012 A Year of Prayer

Call to me and I will show you great and mighty things you do not know.
(Jer. 33:3)

This year of prayer invites us to pray continuously knowing He will lead and guide us as we reach out to individuals who are lonely, lost, hurt, and facing oppression. 2012 is a year to bring individuals together in one accord to seek God's face and experience His power to bring about transformation our communities desperately need.

The Year of Prayer monthly prayer calendar:

- January – For Leadership around the world and in our communities
- February – For those who do not know Christ
- March – For marginalized women
- April – Call To Me event and prayer summit
- May – For America
- June – For the world and global concerns
- July – For women in and associated with the military
- August – For unity in families, churches
- September – For stewardship of God's gifts
- October – For churches and ministries
- November – For international atrocities and the persecuted church
- December – For God's Will in our lives

Prayer Consultants, Regional Leaders, and Prayer Coordinators will be key in championing prayer

- Prayer Connections will center on the monthly prayer focus highlighting both global and national needs. We will pray for a movement of prayer to begin in your communities, inviting Christians to come pray together.
- Prayer Consultants (and other key leaders) are encouraged hold monthly prayer conference calls, organize Calls to Prayer, and other prayer gatherings as we seek to pray together.
- Prayer Coordinators will be working to spearhead prayer in their local communities. Volunteers and key leaders are encouraged to begin new Prayer Groups.

An Event - Call to Me Training and Fasting – April 24-28

Call To Me is an in-depth three days of prayer instruction followed by a 24 Hour Prayer Summit. The purpose is to seek God, His kingdom and His righteousness.

We are gathering to: Seek Him, See Him, Meet Him, Hear Him, and Obey Him. The Call To Me event is designed to encourage corporate understanding of in-depth prayer, move beyond personal prayer, encourage corporate time of prayer, and to gain a greater biblical understanding of humility in prayer.

Early bird registration through February 24: $259 (all inclusive)
