Through more than 20 years experience, Peggy has actively served as Director of Women's Ministry, Leadership Development and Women's Studies within churches and non-profit organizations. She has had the privilege of seeing God bring hope and healing to women through leadership development in countries like Thailand, West Africa, India, and the United States. Her passion and purpose is clearly evident when speaking, teaching, or writing:

- Engage women in discussion about purpose
- Expand a woman's knowledge of culture and God
- Equip in natural and relevant evangelism
- Develop a personal action plan to influence the world for Jesus Christ
