Dear Editor,

Since June, Stonecroft Ministries has been promoting the fall leadership and evangelism conference, Impact '08. Now is the time for you to make plans to attend!

Your readers will want to register for this exciting conference. You will want to arrange media coverage and take the stories home to those who are unable to attend. The attached information explains how to register and what you can expect.

Please run the following press release in your religion or life sections as soon as possible. Contact me with any questions.

Thank you,

Jeff Zogg
