

September 15, 2008

Stonecroft Ministries Impact '08, October 10-12

Kansas City, MO—During Impact '08, Stonecroft Ministries will equip participants to impact their communities as they realize God's vision for their lives. Chazown, a Hebrew word meaning vision, sets the theme for this three day leadership conference, October 10-12, 2008, at the Westin Crown Center in Kansas City, Missouri.

There has never been a more critical time for Christians to reach out to the world around them. Stonecroft Ministries President and CEO Geneva Vollrath believes, "God has uniquely positioned and empowered women at this time in history to be the hands and feet of Jesus, reaching out to today's culture."

Elective sessions ranging in topics from mentoring and relationship building to spiritual gifts and evangelism, will equip participants with the tools they need to effectively connect with friends, coworkers, and neighbors in real and relevant ways. Featured speakers include the founder of Overflow Ministries Rev. Dr. Brenda Salter McNeil and Elisa Morgan, MOPS (Mothers of Preschoolers) President and CEO, with special music by singer/songwriter Sara Groves.

Registration is available online at www.stonecroft.org or by calling Stonecroft Ministries at 1-800-525-8627.

Stonecroft Ministries is a non-profit 501 (c)3 organization governed by an independent Board of Directors. Stonecroft's mission is to equip and encourage women to reach their communities with the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

Media contact:

Jeff Zogg

Director of Communications

Stonecroft Ministries

1-800-525-8627 ext. 293

communications@stonecroft.org