

50 Ways to Love at Christmas

1. Send a Christmas card in the mail or drop off at a neighbor's door.
2. Bake or buy some holiday treats to share with others.
3. Facetime a friend or neighbor to ask how she is doing and if you can pray for her.
4. Get permission to set up a holiday prayer box in your community. For example, cash register of a local shop or restaurant. Check them often and pray over requests.
5. Host a Who Is Jesus? Bible study. Find it here: www.stonecroft.org/store
6. Go for a neighborhood stroll with some friends and sing Christmas carols from a distance.
7. Host a warm beverage and s'mores or hotdog night around a firepit while holiday decorating or walking dogs.
8. If you're out at the grocery store or ordering groceries, offer to pick something up for someone with a hectic schedule.
9. Surprise your postal delivery person with a small gift and encouraging note at your door, thanking them for their service.
10. Call an elderly person to let them know you are thinking of them and take time to listen to some of their Christmas memories.
11. Gift the Conversation series as a holiday gift. Follow up in January with a date to begin the Conversation together.
12. Find an advent devotional or calendar that you can go through with a friend or neighbor that is spiritually seeking.
13. Enclose a Gift for You booklet in a card, goodie bag, or with a gift. If your friend is spiritually seeking, ask if you can read it together.
14. While shopping, buy something extra that isn't on your gift list. When the opportunity arises, give the gift to someone in need of encouragement.
15. Host a small COVID-friendly Christmas gathering socially distanced in an opened garage or outside around a fire.
16. Share a faith-based Advent sermon with someone who is spiritually open.
17. Text inspirational Christmas images, songs, or short stories to friends or neighbors.
18. Plan a Zoom Christmas-themed outreach such as "Christmas Sweaters," mail-ahead gift exchange, Christmas trivia, etc.
19. Start a prayer initiative that focuses on revival during the holiday season leading up to the New Year.
20. Watch a Hallmark holiday movie together and discuss faith elements or spiritual significance.
21. Organize a "blue" holiday gathering (virtual or in person) for those that have lost a loved one this year.
22. Surprise someone with a poinsettia plant to brighten their day.
23. Share your story of how God is moving in your life over the holiday season. Ask about your friend's Story of Now as well. Learn how here: www.stonecroft.org/evangelismtools
24. Plan a door drop Christmas cookie exchange with those who live close by.
25. Give the gift of a year of The Stonecroft Experience to someone. www.stonecroft.org/experience
26. Purchase gift cards from local businesses to support shops in your community.
27. Make Christmas cards or crafts with kids or grandkids to mail or to drop off to brighten someone's day.

28. Invite women to like view some of the Hope Stories on our YouTube channel.
29. Set up a free gift-wrapping station to offer gift wrapping for the holidays. You might put a card with Scripture in the bag when they come to pick up their wrapped gift(s).
30. Gift a Bible to a friend who may have fears or spiritual questions and offer to read John with her to start.
31. Decorate a friend's window or door with a Christmas wreath or holiday décor.
32. Come alongside and build a relationship with a woman that is recently divorced, a single mom, newly widowed, those with special needs children, etc.
33. Use Stonecroft's ACTS prayer guide to help you as you pray for friends and family.
34. Invite friends to join your Christmas Eve church online or in person and meet at a later time to debrief the service.
35. Read an inspirational Christmas or Advent book with a seeking friend and set up weekly times to discuss.
36. Send your favorite Christmas worship music to someone who needs her spirit lifted.
37. Call a woman living on her own, and let her know you are there for her, that she is not alone.
38. Thank someone who has an essential job for all they do. Let them know that you would like to pray for them.
39. Reach out to an international woman in your area and share about how you each celebrate holidays. Share a meal together.
40. Offer to babysit for a mom of young children so she can get her holiday shopping done.
41. Share the Gospel through a call, through Facebook Messenger, or other platforms. For help with this visit www.stonecroft.org/evangelismtools or email connections@stonecroft.org
42. Memorize a Scripture to share when those who are fearful need hope found in Jesus.
43. Use your Stonecroft prayer journal to pray daily for women who don't know Jesus. Don't have one? Visit www.stonecroft.org/store and order yours today.
44. Invite a woman to have coffee. Ask her to share her story with you. Listen actively and love her.
45. In a Christmas card, insert an invitation to a winter small group opportunity, like a book or Bible study.
46. Contact your local prison, homeless shelter, or pregnancy center, and ask how you can help serve them in practical ways over the holiday season.
47. Host a driveway or front porch Christmas open house. Invite passersby to stop in and spread the joy further.
48. Ask a musician to play music at a holiday gathering. If they have a testimony to share too, allow that opportunity to flow naturally.
49. As you walk or drive a neighborhood looking at holiday lights, pray for your neighbors.
50. Have a gift-wrapping party with 2 or 3 friends where everyone brings their gifts and wrapping paper, then wrap together. Engage in faith conversations while wrapping.

For questions or help with any of these ideas please email connections@stonecroft.org

Tell us if you used these to reach women with the Good News of Jesus in the link below or scan the QR code!

<https://www.stonecroft.org/reaching-1-million-women-check-in/>

